When You Sell, Trust The Reliability Of The Firm That Has Handled Most of America's Greatest Classics.

So many of the world's great collections have always come to us.

Our 39 year record of active buying is virtually unmatched in philately. It represents a record of integrity and comfort for the seller who always must trust, implicitly, the individual who buys his collection.

Andrew Levitt is the most competitive buyer in philately. We have handled properties as diverse as those of Grunin, Haas, Boker, Chapin, Neil, and Jennings. When the serious U.S. classics philatelist thinks of selling his collection there is no doubt that he should come to Andrew Levitt first.

We have $6 million ready to purchase your philatelic property...from the smallest collection to entire carloads of albums. Our letters of credit can be sent to you today. And for larger holdings we can come right to your home.

Can Andrew Levitt pay you more for your stamps? We keep our finger on the pulse of the market and will pay you the most competitive market value for your stamps & covers. And not tomorrow or in installments, but full payment right on the spot. This is always our guarantee.

The renowned Pony Express cover addressed to The Hon. Abraham Lincoln when he was running for president in August 1860. One of the most spectacular covers in American postal history.
